PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Hello all once again, the youth group has been going from strength to strength. Their weekly BBQs have been very successful. Thanks to Marc and Chris Doumergue for all their input and making this such a success.

The Mega Markets have once again been a success. Thank you to all the volunteers who give up their time to help out, whether it be answer the phone, setting up site numbers the day before or collecting and packing up tables and chairs after the markets. Thanks to John Snowdon for all your effort.

There has been some confusion in the past few weeks/months about the Wallabies Tours experience at Cape Hillsborough. Tas Webber from Mackay Tourism came to our last meeting to give us some more information about the experience. I have been since contacted by Renae Atherton from Cape Hillsborough Nature Resort to inform me that some of that information was incorrect. After our discussion we decided that the best course of action was to get her to write a few paragraphs clearing up any confusion regarding their involvement with the tours.

Please take the time to read the statement received from Cape Hillsborough Nature Tourist Park.

"Cape Hillsborough Nature Tourist Park (CHNTP) would like to take this opportunity to clear up some misinformation which has been circulated in regards to our involvement in the Mackay Tourism paid Sunrise with Wallabies Tours.

CHNTP wishes to advise that we are not the organisers, nor the operators of the paid Tours, nor do we have any input into how and when the Tours are run. As part of the Commercial Agreement for Mackay Tourism to operate the Tours, CHNTP staff are not permitted to take part in any management activities in regards to the wildlife, human visitors or any other aspects of the Experience. We are not the contact point for enquiries regarding the Tours—all questions should be directed to Mackay Tourism.

CHNTP do not profit-share with Mackay Tourism. We have a Service Agreement in place with Mackay Tourism for the provision of facilities. Under this agreement, we receive the sum of $1.50 per person booked on a tour.

This sum is intended to cover the provision of: use of our property as a meeting point; cleaning staff to commence work prior to 6am to ensure amenities are clean for tour guests; a lockable storage area for Tour equipment; electricity supply to charge the transmitters used by tour participants, and an area for their Tour Guide to complete administrative tasks, including access to telephone and internet connectivity. It should be noted that these facilities are provided on a daily basis, and have been since the Tours commenced, regardless of whether or not there are any Tour participants booked for that day. CHNTP are able to claim a commission on any Tours booked by our staff—exactly the same as any other Operator who booked through Mackay Tourism's booking system.

CHNTP staff will continue with our efforts to inform and educate guests and visitors with regard to our beautiful area. We are committed to ensuring, first and foremost, that the care and conservation of this Region, and the community in which we live and work remains a priority over and above any financial gain. We thank you for your support and understanding."

Renae Atherton
Owner (CHNTP)

If you have any further questions regarding the Wallabies Tours please don't hesitate to email Tas Webber from Mackay Tourism at gm@mackayregion.com or check out the Tour website www.sunrisewallabytours.com

Until next time stay safe and have fun.

(Provided by Officer in Charge—Senior Constable Adam McLoughlin)

The 27th to the 31st of August saw the Queensland Police Service execute the 2018 Road Safety Week, the goal being to make our roads safer for all users. Every day, road crashes devastate the lives of Queenslanders and take an enormous toll on families and communities. We need all Queenslanders to take a stand.

In 2017 247 people died and 6450 people were hurt or seriously injured in crashes on Qld roads. During Road Safety Week, Qld police increased the presence and enforcement actions on Qld roads. The focus being on the fatal five which are;

1. Speeding
2. Driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs
3. Failing to wear seatbelts and child restraints
4. Fatigue
5. Distraction (mobile phones).

Police not only focused on the above Fatal Five, but each day saw a focus on different road user groups including motorists, pedestrians, bicycle riders, heavy vehicle drivers and motorcyclists.

Hopefully seeing the extra enforcement activities on our roads makes road users think about their own actions, and how they can contribute to our goal of making the roads safer.

One issue I have noticed in our local area is the increase in caravans and motorhomes on the roads. It's something that we have to get used to, especially this time of year. Speed limit signs show the maximum you can travel on that road. Unfortunately, many vehicles towing caravans and boats cannot travel at the speed limit. I know it can be frustrating, but we need to be patient. I continue to observe vehicles overtaking on double lines or when it is not safe to do so, especially on the Yakapari Seaforth Road, and I will continue to write infringement notices for these offences.

For any person driving a slow vehicle and travelling well below the speed limit, I ask that you be considerate of other road users, and if you notice traffic building up behind you then please, when safe to do so, pull over and allow the traffic to pass. Being considerate toward other road users is something of which we all need to be mindful.

Crime in the area continues to be low. However, we did have one house broken into with some property stolen. With help from the community and fingerprints located at the scene, detectives from the Mackay Criminal Investigation Branch were able to identify the female offender, who was charged, and most of the property recovered. Please keep an eye out and report any suspicious behaviour to Police or CrimeStoppers.

Until next month.

Stay safe,

Adam

SEAFORTH TOWN RURAL FIRE BRIGADE

THE BUSH FIRE SEASON OFFICIALLY STARTED
AUGUST 1

Well, we all know it starts anytime, now we are in the low rainfall period . Inspect your home for close grass fuel and remove it. Average response times for Rural Brigades is 25 minutes as volunteers have to called and assembled in full SAFETY GEAR, before heading out to a fire . So you are unassisted for some time before help arrives .

People on acreage and farmers are reminded to clear around Ergon power poles on their land. If a power pole is damaged by fire, land owners can be liable for replacement costs, if negligence is evident.

REMEMBERING MICK DILGER

Last month saw the passing of Kippen Drive resident, Mick Dilger. Mick kept pretty well to himself, but if anyone needed something done Mick was always there to lend a hand. He volunteered for many local groups including the Seaforth Horse Sports Club when he assisted the late Geoff Duffy with the building of the rodeo grounds. Although he never played the game, he often made himself available to assist at working bees at the Seaforth Bowls Club.

Mick was also one of the many locals who volunteered their time during the building of the Seaforth Community Hall. This photo was taken at the 10th anniversary celebrations for the opening of the hall. He was a good bloke!

A tentative date for a "Celebration of Mick's Life" is Friday, 28th September at The Old Station Tea House. Please contact The Tea House for further details.

All the colours of the reef

There was no shortage of colour at the recent Whitsunday Reef Festival at Airlie Beach. I had the great pleasure of awarding prizes in the wearable art competition before watching the street parade. Airlie Beach turned on some of its finest weather for our visitors.

The street parade at the Whitsunday Reef Festival was a riot of colour.

Kind actions commended

Congratulations to Raj Sharma, who owns and operates Roshni Indian Restaurant in Victoria Street in Mackay, on winning an India Australia Business and Community Award recently. These awards go to those who are strengthening Australia-India relationships. Raj not only runs an excellent restaurant, but is generous in supporting his local community through donating to drought-stricken farmers and hosting a Christmas lunch for the needy.

It was a pleasure to present Roshni Indian Restaurant's Raj Sharma with his well deserved India Australia Business and Community Award.

Ultra-passionate about coral

There's some visionary work going on at Ultra Coral Australia in Mackay. The business not only supplies coral to aquariums but its people are passionate about ensuring their practices are sustainable, particularly in relation to the coral species unique to our part of the world.

I joined Mackay Councillor Ross Gee in hearing from Ultra Coral Australia's Nic Dos Santos and Michael Harris about their future plans.

Funding up for grabs for sports groups

Sporting groups in the region are encouraged to apply for funding for a national $29.7 million program aimed at upgrading community sports facilities and increasing sports participation. The Community Sport Infrastructure grant program was recently launched by Federal Sports Minister Bridget McKenzie, enabling sport and community organisations to apply for grants of up to $500,000 in 2018-19. MARKETS REPORT

The Markets this past month have been very challenging. The Mega Market on the 5th of August had an enormous amount of competition from the Handmade Markets, The Wings and Wheels Show at Palmyra, Sarina Annual show, St Josephs School Fair to name just the major ones.

Still the Mega Markets had over 80 stalls and most reported that they were very happy with the results for the day.

Coningsby State School were very appreciative of having the opportunity to raise some much-needed funds from the Mega Market BBQ.

For our regular market the Youth Group continues to operate the BBQ and with a small but willing group of local kids and under the supervision of Marc Doumergue continue to have excellent fund raising Days.

By the time you read this, the Seaforth Youth Group should have had their first Youth night at the tennis courts and sports centre on the 25th of August.

Keep a look out on Facebook and the various noticeboards around town for more information..

We have a great group of volunteers at the moment so a huge thanks to them all.

There is always room for more people who would like to be part of the Hibiscus Coast community.
